

CHÂTEAU DE LA BOUYÈRE 2015

BORDEAUX BLANC

The Queyrens family has owned Château de la Bouyère for more than a century.

They have preserved the knowledge acquired by the old generations.

This vineyard is located at the top of Donzac, 45 km south of Bordeaux.

Grape production, wine making and ageing take place on the family estate.

Soil	Age of vines (avg.)	Area
Clay, Limestone	20 years	2 ha

Wine making

Traditional fermentation in thermo regulated stainless steel vats

Ageing

The ageing on lees brings complexity and roundness in mouth and strengthens its pleasant characters.

Blending

Sémillon : 80%

Sauvignon : 20%

Tasting note

Lovely pale golden colour with a little hints of green. The expressive nose offers intense aromas with exotics and whites flowers. Begins with a refreshing mouth that reveals an ample and harmonious flesh. Slightly lemony reach a pleasantly tasting in final.
